From my early childhood I have dedicated myself to the upliftment of the Scheduled Castes among whom I was born. It is not that there were no temptations in my way.

If I had considered my own interests, I could have been anything I wanted to beI would have reached to the highest place in that organization.

But as I said, I had dedicated myself to the upliftment of the Scheduled Castes

In the absence of the company of human beings I sought the company of books
and read and read.
Absorbed in reading
I forgot my lonely
condition.

By writing books, I will remove all your doubts and suspicions and will try to lead you to a stage of full
knowledge.

This Jayanti, let's pledge to read
This Jayanti, let's pledge to read Babasaheb and devote at least thirty minutes each day to reading him as part of our daily routine.
